the earliest arab histories written in the 7th and 8th centuries by al waqidi al tibri ibn ishaq ibn husham and ibn sa ad supported by relevant verses of the qur an are greatly differentiable in length and analyses from the modern islamic propaganda history the islamists teach short purged and grossly exaggerated versions to produce preachers jihadis and propagandists to spread islam however the earliest histories based on hundreds of thousands of meticulously gathered reports of the people of the period and contemporary poetry and prose provide a much more detailed and realistic account from among these earliest records muslim and non muslim scholars agree that ibn husham s d 833 compilation of ibn ishaq s 704 767 ce biography of muhammad is the most complete ibn ishaq travelled widely to collect accounts from those who had witnessed the events or learned about them from muhammad s contemporaries over decades he painstakingly gathered information and wrote it the earliest arab historians portray a picture of muhammad with attributes of an early 7th century arabian leader who adopted the title allah s apostle where in tribal hejaz and najd it was customary to use this title in order to gather support from tribes and people others who used the same title were tulayha ibn khuwaylid ibn noufal of the al asad tribe musaylima ibn habib of the banu hanifa al aswad al ansi of the banu ans sajah bint al harith ibn suayd of the banu taghlib allegedly a scholar named saf ibn sayyad and many others this was because in those days the title allah s apostle embodied the same meaning and status among the arabs as that of a great political leader in modern times because the tribes of these others prophets were not militarily as strong as muhammad s followers were they faced defeat and left him to be the only allah s apostle afterwards historically many kings and leaders attributed their authority to god such as the mughal kings called themselves the light of allah or the shadow of allah the iranian leaders called themselves the sign of allah or the spirit of allah and the ahmadi caliphs use the title the hand of allah these earliest books show that modern islamic propaganda does not reflect the reality of the arab society and culture of muhammad s period there are glaring contradictions between the earliest arab records and modern islamic myths this book tells the story of muhammad islam the qur an and the arabian society of the period as truthfully and originally as the available records make it possible this edition of the book includes its urdu translation alongside the original english version
